Applications:

The Jiayi aerosol can cone is a high-quality product that is perfect for a variety of applications. Made from durable tinplate material with a thickness of 0.28/0.32/0.35/0.40, this aerosol component is designed to withstand deformation pressure of  $\geq 1.8\text{MPa}$ . With ISO9001:2015 certification, you can be sure that this product is made to the highest standards of quality and safety.

One of the most common applications for the Jiayi aerosol can cone is in the manufacturing of aerosol products such as air fresheners, hairspray, and insecticides. The cone shape of the product allows for easy spray dispersion and ensures that the product is evenly distributed. This makes it an ideal choice for companies looking to create high-quality aerosol products that are effective and easy to use. Another application for this aerosol component is in the automotive industry. Many automotive companies use aerosol products to clean and protect various parts of vehicles, and the Jiayi aerosol can cone is the perfect choice for these applications. Whether you're creating a product to clean car interiors or protect car exteriors, the cone shape of this product ensures that the product is evenly distributed and easy to apply.

The Jiayi aerosol can cone is also a great choice for companies in the cleaning and sanitation industry. Whether you're creating a product to clean bathrooms, kitchens, or other areas, this aerosol component is designed to deliver a consistent and effective spray that can be easily applied where needed.

In addition to these applications, the Jiayi aerosol can cone is also a great choice for companies in the beauty and personal care industry. Whether you're creating a hairspray, a body spray, or any other type of aerosol product, this component is designed to deliver a consistent and even spray that is perfect for personal use.

With packaging details that include a pallet and a delivery time of 10-15 days, the Jiayi aerosol can cone is the perfect choice for companies looking for a high-quality product that is made in China. With a sample available, you can try this product for yourself and see why it is the preferred choice for companies around the world. So if you're looking for a reliable and effective aerosol component, look no further than Jiayi.
